

Recology Invites you!

We're thrilled to partner with local organizations to bring the community several engaging Waste Zero activities this Summer and Fall. Check out this list of upcoming events, and mark your calendars.

Recology Village

Come to the Wednesday Night Market in Old Courthouse Square on Tuesday, July 30th, 5 - 8:30 PM for Recology Village! Kids can explore reuse through play, by participating in Recology's cardboard city creation. A variety of other organizations with fun and educational activities for will also be at the market. Kids can enjoy exploring their creativity at this community event. Everyone is welcome!

There will be a recycling truck there too!

TRASH Art Exhibits

The Recology Artstart Student Hub (TRASH) is buzzing with creativity! This new seven-week summer program is empowering five talented young artists to transform what was once trash into thought-provoking art. The artists have been picking through the non-recyclable materials at the Recology Materials Recovery Facility (MRF) in Santa Rosa, using their finds to spark conversations about consumption and resource conservation. Don't miss seeing their incredible work at the upcoming Sonoma State and Santa Rosa Visitor's Center art exhibits. More details can be found at Artstart.us/trash.

Reuse Bazaar

Are you looking to part ways with a loved item, or in need of something for your home? Come to the Reuse Bazaar! Bring your items, or just shop (for free) from what others bring, to the Grace Pavilion at the Sonoma County

Fairgrounds (1350 Bennett Valley Rd., Santa Rosa). Once the event concludes, leftover items in good condition will be donated to local thrift stores and non-profit organizations. This event is open to all residents in Sonoma County. Each resident can bring one vehicle full of items, with a maximum of three cubic yards of items per vehicle. Find out more at srcity.org/ZeroWaste and click "Zero Waste Reuse Bazaar".
